IT HELPS YOU GET

War Souvenir Coupon

The Civil War Through the Camera

Brady's Famous Civil War Photographs

(Published by Permission of the U. S. War Department)

And Professor Elson's Newly Written History

of the Civil War

SAVE THIS COUPON.

Assistant Under Fellows.

After being admitted to the bar Mr. W. Pollock, founded the law Two years later he ran for Dis- being in the quartet which murdered been in earnest about purfeated by DeLancey Nicoll, the Tam-

in its investigation of the Po-was the restoring of stolen property to its

His activity along these lines, together with his independence and outspokenness, wn upon his head a wealth of ticism, but he remained tranquil and when Mr. Goff's term as Recorder the office was abolished. The foiyear, however, he received the al Branch of the Supreme Court in resulting from the legislative investo serve, however, because of illss following an operation.

"LEFTY" SEEING THE LAKES Duluth Report Has Him on Steamer Tionesta.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 15.-The police here have been notified that "Lefty wanted in connection with the Rosenthal murder in New York, is reported to be on board the steamer Tionests, of the Anchor Line, bound

The vessel is expected to reach here Saturday morning. If he is on board Marquette and Houghton.

Lefty Louie" is supposed to have boarded the vessel at Eric, Penn., with

A dispatch to the police from Erie, slipped by the police there be "Gib the Blood," disguised by wireless, and if called upon could easily arrest any suspected persons among the passengers.

IT TELLS ON DOUGHERTY

But Deputy Says He'll "Get 'Em' if It Takes Lifetime. Deputy Commissioner Dougherty said yesterday that in his search for the remaining fugitives in the Rosenthal case was using the methods be employed when with the Pinkerton agency. His detectives were not making a general it. Led by Mrs. Thomas Pettit, the wife written: "I have employed Attorney Sandand sweeping search, but certain sleuths of the acting Mayor, many of the most ler to look after your interests. were assigned to track down the various clews they had secured. The deputy New Yorker good by yesterday afternoon. Schepps, Hot Springs, Ark." thought he would be wasting the time They invited him to visit Hot Springs and energy of his detectives if he merely detailed them generally to scour the able circumstances.

of weeks of unsuccessful work. His com- ant District Attorney Rubin, Detectives too bright and he seemed nervous. His spirit, however, was as enthusiastic as Til get those fellows sooner or later. So help me! I'll get them, if it takes a lifetime," he declared, as he thumped his desk with a muscular fist.

Dougherty said his official paths had land, as that is the most direct route. crossed those of Lieutenant Recker. When he entered the department he was placed in charge of a vice squad, where he remained for ten weeks, three raids. In only two raids, he said, did the news of his coming reach the gambling house before he and his squad got there. One was the incident of a dice shooting place far uptown, and the other a gambling house in Broad street. When information of a raid reaches the house ahead of the raiders the fact must be considered suspicious at least. declared the deputy. "As I said, in only two of the fifty-three raids I engineered did the information leak."

In his "confession" Rose is quoted as having stated that Herman Rosenthal himself had two policemen detailed to the raiding squad of Lieutenant Becker-Joseph Michaelson and Charles E. Foy. "Rosenthal and 'Charlie' Becker had an arrangement that these two men were to work under Rosenthal's instructions, Rose is alleged to have said. "He was to select certain poolrooms that these men answered. were to bring Becker evidence on. From the information bureau at Police son was assigned to the squad on Febru- is keeping me awake." ary 12, and remained there until April 8. at which time he was transferred to the West 125th street station house. For was assigned to the squad on December 12 and | while. remained in the squad until April 15, when he was sent to the East 35th street | movements this morning and particular station house. Commissioner Waldo remained away from his office yesterday. All day officials York. He seems anxious to make all and newspaper men called, only to be speed to the office of District Attorney to be put in the attitude of having rushed turned away. One of the Commissioner's uniformed will reveal all he knows of the murder of attendants said; "I can't tell you where Herman Rosenthal and of the police the Commissioner is because I'm not al- graft system. It is understood he offered formation forthcoming. secretary, also was not to be seen.

REWARD OF $5,000 FOR "GIB" AND "LEFTY LOUIE" known yesterday that he had decided that he has made no secret of the fact Goff & Pollock. He soon showed to offer a reward of $5,000 for the ar-

Mr. Whitman pointed out that in the difficult now that the police month that has passed since Rosenthal stretched out their failure until the was shot down in front of the Metro- trails have grown cold, but he think pole no single ciew has developed any- that the offer of a reward will possibly as counsel to the Lexow thing of value as to the whereabouts jog the memories of some of the dwellof the two fugitives, and he believes ers in the underworld who may have that the offer of a reward of $2,500 for been in communication with "Glb" or each of them may bring some result.

under arrest before any of the cases he did not have the money in hand, but planning to begin the trials early in formal announcement of his offer of effort should be made to land the two have the money by that time fugitives before that time. It has been His case against every one of the a matter of surprised comment among defendants on the approaching murdet no one has offered any reward for capt- four gunmen in custody, as it is adrecords, of all indictments present- ures in connection with it before this, It had been the cus- but the District Attorney has taken the succeeded in keeping out, the two who e the District Attorney ex- position, and still adheres to it, that will face trial would endeavor to put the capture of the fugitives is a matter that is strictly up to the police."

He is anxious to have them both Mr. Whitman admitted last night that Department W. September he believes that an extra reward early next week, and would

Herman Rosenthal whom the police He realizes that the capture

"Lefty" recently

Another reform instituted by Mr. Goff INQUEST POSTPONED. TO AID GRAND JURY

Rosenthal was postponed for a week by Coroner Feinberg yesterday at the request of Frank Moss. The Assistant Distriction of the Assi man in the Coroner's court. Mr. Moss Harry Duryea, F. W. Duryea and J. W. said the District Attorney and the wit- Ferrington nesses who would have appeared before Dix to hold an extraordinary term of the the Coroner were emaged with the grand Libby were brought down from the West

Sullivan, protested at the delay.

protests have proved unavailing in the police station, who was on hand with som past, and I assume that they would be of the reserves, was infor we shall have to stand for whatever is lin street side of the building where the misapprehension," said Mr. Moss, "I have there. o objection to informing him that his elient is involved in the proceedings before the grand jury. We have practically completed our case, and it would not be surprising if indictments should be returned Sullivan's Confidence Gone.

Sullivan had been told by Rose, Weber and his co escape before coming here, as breast of all he knew of the shooting of nesta stops at Sault Ste, Marie, Rosenthal, but it apparently came as in court that an indictment for murder Eack in Centre and Lafayette streets might be filed against him soon. He sat curiosity seckers were restrained as with his head bowed in his hands while fire. The same method of p known names on the list of jurors who windows closely it is doubtful if any one

"In case the gentleman is under any were to prevent a crowd from collecting

Guarded Against Gunmen

listen to the inquest into Herman Rosen- recognized them as they saying that officers of the vessel are onstantly in communication with land AFTER HOLDING LEVEE

| By Telegraph to The Tribune. | Mr. Whitman. | Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 15.—"Sam" | Bernard Sandler, a lawyer, of New Schepps is no longer a visitor in this city. York, who says he has been employed to and the local police are mighty glad of look after Schepps's interests, arrived on the surrender of the fugitive to Dis- train. When he learned that Schepps triet Attorney Whitman's representatives, and already started back to New York who arrived here yesterday.

prominent women of the city bade the Dougherty showed the physical effect city this morning, accompanied by Assist- engaged his services. maxion was less ruddy, his eyes a bit Stewart and Thomas and four newspaper men. The route back to New York is not known, Attorney Rubin having decided to teep that a secret so far as possible. They left Hot springs, however, by way of the Iron Mountain. It is thought they him while here or that he would escape will go from St. Louis to New York over haunted them and made sleep almost imthe New York Central by way of Cleveonly about thirty minutes, when Acting the Marquette Hotel, that he would be Mayor Pettit received a telegram from District Attorney Whitman requesting "start something" with local newspaper in that time having led his men in fifty- that Schepps be detained here until such men and correspondents. time as his trip would land him in New York not earlier than Monday morning. the party with a message both at Little party with a message both at Little and Benton, but failed. He will trust to luck to catch them at some place Detective Thomas arrived here shortly before midnight last night and Schepps was formally surrendered into his custody by United States Marshal Fred Johnson. Thomas was weary from his long ride on the train, and as soon as he could finish what preliminary business was necessary he took himself off to bed. Schepps was assigned to one room and Thomas to another, the two rooms adjoining and communicating. At 3 o'clock this morning the house telephone in the hotel office rang and the night clerk a telegram from Scheppe's relatives re-

"Send some one up to my guard's room and tell him not to snore so loud," came Headquarters it was learned that Michael- Schepps's voice over the telephone. "He

The clerk obligingly sent a bellboy to Thomas's room with a request for that person to sleep on the other side for a which arrived there at the same time not to give out any information as to the route the party would take back to New Whitman, where it is expected Schepps away with Schepps after receiving a telelowed to." That proved to be all the in- to sell a complete confession to a newspaper correspondent last night for $1,000

They are congratulating themselves here this afternoon on a much belated he caught the first train out of the city Among the "laity" Schepps seems to in pursuit, after being here only an hour.

have made many partisans during his vis- Mr. Sandler had a card on which was brother Bob." It was addressed to "Sam

Schepps professed last night to be in when he could come under more agree- ignorance of who this attorney was, and asserted he had received a wire from Schepps took his departure from this relatives in New York, denying they had

> Though Schepps has never been a prisoner of the city police, Acting Mayor Pettit. Chief of Police Leonard and other officers were to-night more at ease than since his arrest Saturday. The constant dread that something might happen to

The train had been gone this morning marked to friends, while in the lobby of back in Hot Springs soon and would

> St. Louis, Aug. 15.- "Sam" Schepps Assistant District Attorney Rubin and Detectives Thomas and Stewart, of New | York.

Schepps reiterates his assertion that his first definite statement of the whole of what he knows about the Rosenthal case will be made in person to District At torney Whitman and no other person. He has been consistent in this declaration for three days.

As to Bernard Sandler, the New York attorney, who telegraphed Schepps at Hot Springs not to talk to Mr. Rubin until his (Sandler's) arrival and not to leave Hot Springs then, Schepps's attitude is puzzling.

pudiated Sandler; that Schepps never saw Sandler, and that he wanted no attorney, but expected to be in much more favorable standing with Whitman's office because of his position as a voluntary witness. Nevertheless, Schepps, at Benton. Ark., to-day urged that a train. while.

Mr. Rubin was very secretive about his to find whether Sandier, on route to Hot Springs, was a passenger. Detective Stewart examined each coach of the but Sandler was not found.

Mr. Rubin declared that he did not wish gram that Sandler was en route, and expressed the opinion that Schepps probably was as much in ignorance of the real mission of Sandler as any one else in the party, and was governed almost entirely Winfield R. Sheelan, the Commissioner's but this offer was refused, and he then by curiosity and a desire for novel exdeclared he would, sell his confession to periences.

Do Not Delay—Use This Coupon To-day Each Section, 10 Cents at Tribune Office, 154 Nassau St., or 1364 Broadway, or 263 West 125th St. (14 Cents by Mail)

Address all mail orders to THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE

No. 16

154 Nassau Street, New York

No. 16

Specify what section is wanted and send coupon with order. SECTIONS ONE TO SIXTEEN, INCLUSIVE, ARE NOW READY.

HERE IS SOMETHING YOU REQUIRE War Photographs in Book Form

You can bind your Brady War Pictures into one Beautiful Volume. The bune has secured a convenient and attractive binder in which any one can sten the sixteen parts now being issued by this paper into a beautiful bound

The binder is highly artistic, and can be had for 80 cents. If sent by

GRAFT DEEP-SEATED, MAYOR NOW ADMITS

Instead of treating lightly the charges of graft that were first made by Horman Rosenthal, the gambler, the Mayor Counsel to give his cons

There has been deep-seated grafting in the department for forty years. I have been working with the Commissioner to do away with it. July 26 the Mayor wrote to Commi sloner Waldo in reference to Lieutenant

the police administration. oposition to the aldermanic investigation

After a talk with the Mayor several days later Corporation Counsel Watson ed a statement that he did not in-West Side counsel of the aldermanic investigating with Commissioner Waldo. Soon after:

The Mayor wrote to the Corporation

sel of the aldermanic committee be designated as an Assistant Corporation

INDICTMENTS DELAYED: WAITING FOR SCHEPPS

At the specific request of District Attor- changed in any way. Tuesday. While the jury was in session upon to do so ..

voted to adjourn until Tuesday, leaving Becker, the uptown inspector or any Buckner said, and its successful accomthe indictment to be taken up at that one else who might be involved.

ing up the promised indictment rumors of disagreement spread around, and friends of Becker were quick to take advantage of them. Becker's supporters thrown out the entire case. these stories were put up to him, Mr. Whitman declared that they were abso-

agreement in the grand jury room is abtorney. "It is essential that all the evi- advanced for that gunman. dence be so presented that indictments | So far as the testimony of Rose. Weber plained, had power of subposta and could found against the several defendants may and Valinsky was concerned, it was have a witness adjudged in contempt if be properly found. "I requested the grand jury myself to delay the filing of indictments until Tues- another and they did not contradict one day, and I assume that it was at my re- another upon any points whatever. quest such a delay occurred. The grand ary and the District Attorney are in entire accord, and there has been no suggestion of friction or disagreement of any Testifies as to Motive of Crime.

Max Hochstim was the most important witness heard by the grand jury yester-day, and the importance of his story rests largely upon the fact that it was through him that what is believed to be the chief notive for Rosenthal's murder was officially put into the record. Hochstim, who is a close friend of "Sam" Paul and the is a close friend of Sain | Hotel, had a | Monday night just preceding the early chief owner of the Lincoln Hotel, had a | Tuesday morning murder, and can, if he conversation with Herman Resenthal or July 15, the day before he was shot. On that occasion Rosenthal told Hochstim Mr. Rubin says Schepps told him that the had been talking to Mr. Whitman and that he was going to have a long conference with the District Attorney the next day, at which time he, Ros enthal, intended to lay before Mr. Whitnan everything he knew of gambling graft and police corruption.

Weber, Valinsky and Rose were other witnesses yesterday, But it was said that their evidence was solely upon the murler end of the inquiry and that they neded nothing to the stories they have told before. Weber, however, was anxious to correct the impression created by the publication of stories in some morning newspapers other than The Tribune yes-Burns told him generally of his plans terday, that he had determined to talk freely upon the murder case, involving Becker, but to keep quiet on the graft end, involving an uptown police inspector, for whom he was at one time

Weber asserted that his attitude toward | Horowitz" and that he was "going to get" District Attorney Whitman had not the men higher up in the graft game.

Rubin, the Assistant District Attorney he said that Weber had not been intimi- equally inimical to the efficiency, disci- the sounds. who was sent to Hot Springs, Ark., for dated by any one, and that, so far as pline and morale of the force. Sam" Schepps, advising him that he knew, no pressure had been brought Schepps and party would arrive in New to bear on Weber since the midnight soon as possible the worst or the best, covered how entrance was effected, as York on Saturday. The indictment, which visit to his cell of a man who repre- I do not believe that the committee nothing was broken about the windows wall charge the four gunmen and Becker, sented himself as bringing a warning wants to turn up scandal merely for the or doors. Sullivan and Shapiro with the murder of from the police inspector who will be purpose of sensation. The only purpose Rosenthal, was drawn and ready, but Mr. implicated by Weber's story. Weber had of scandal is by way of diagnosis. Whitman advised the jurors that he be- not changed in his attitude in any way, prescription and attempts at preventive eved it would be wiser to hear Schepps's i Mr. Whitman said, and he would tell hygiene must follow. his story as he was called upon to do nesses heard yesterday. Harris and Shaw, to go out to collect the evidence both friends of "Dago Frank" Cirofici, told of meeting him and falking with him committee over the District Attorney in "Any statement as to a clash or dis- on several occasions the day before the such an inquiry was that the committee murder, but neither of them attempted to was not bound by rules of evidence, but olutely unfounded." said the District At- bolster up the near alibi which was first could proceed in any way it saw fit. Mr.

> understood afterward that their stories he refused to answer questions. had been thoroughly corroborative of one

What is Wanted from Schepps.

To complete the presentation of the nurder case Mr. Whitman is anxious that he grand jury delay the filing of indictcause by that witness the District Attorney expects to prove, from the lips of a complice, the circumstances surrounding read "The Man Higher Up." the preliminary trip of the murder car on the night of the crime. Schepps was in the car for a part of the

Monday night just preceding the early will, give the gist of the conversations that were heard there. He can tell also of the trip to 140th street to pick up "Dago Frank" and others, and it is pretty weil understood that if Schepps declines to the untrodden snow. The flagpole i tell what he knows he will find himself included in the general murder charge It was reported that Louis Libby, half owner of the murder car, had decided to give up what information he has to th District Attorney. Libby, it was rumored yesterday, was with the gamblers and Attacks on Officials Not Considered gunmen when the killing was first spoken of, and, according to the first plans, was to drive the automobile. William J. Burns, the detective, had a short talk with Mr. Whitman yesterday, According to the District Attorney, Mr.

material that could be used for evidence either in the murder or graft end of the inquiry. Burns said that he was "going to get

WATSON NAMES SPEER TO REPRESENT CITY

Corporation Counsel Watson made public a letter late last night announcing the appointment of William McMurtrie Speer as special counsel to represent the city as the representative of the Corporation as the representative of the Corporation Counsel in the aldermanic investigation into the Police Department.

The served the city for more than two years past you have served the city in the Catskill water supply proceedings, under tay designation as special counsel. Every one knows that prior to the incumbency of the present Mayor, some phases of those proceedings had become honeycombed with extravagance and corruption. Under the Mayor's direction, and with the co-

Mr. Watson's letter follows:

Mr. Watson's letter follows:

August 15, 1912.

William McMurtrie Speer, Esq., Kingston, N. Y.

Sir: If you are informed of occurrences in New York City in the last few days, you know that an aldermanic committee has been appointed to investigate the Police Department, especially in respect to any relations which may be spect to any relations which may be found to exist between any corrupt members thereof and organized vice and crime.

refine.

You must know that the head of the legal department of the city, or some one designated or appointed by him, is made by law the counsel and legal adviser of the Aldermen or any committee thereof in all matters, whether in or out of court, and that this legally imposed duty is an obligation which can no more be shirked or avoided by me than can any other duty or obligation imposed by the charter and assumed by me when I entered into my present position and took my official outh.

For Thorough Inquiry.

You have probably also learned that I publicly stated to the Board of Aldermen that by reason of the engrossing character of my other official duties I would not be able to assume the entire burden of legal responsibilities for the coming investigation, but expressing my willingness and desire to confer with the board or its committee, to the end that I might designate some fit and capable lawyer, to be selected by the Alderman, to act as special counsel in the premises, so that a thorough, searching and on.

Duty to Participate.

Of course, we shall cheerfully do this, sparing no pains that our work with and for the committee shall be harmonious and free from all friction and conflict, either with the members of the committee or the promising young mun they have called to assist them; nor should our own efforts be permitted to interfere with the excellent work of District Attorner Whitman in any way; not forgetting, however, that it is as much our duty to participate in the investigation as statutory counsel for the committee as it is the duty of the aldermen themselves into the Police Department.

Mr. Speer has served the city for more than two years in the Catskill water suppractically eliminated graft, and have practically eliminated graft, and have practically eliminated graft.

Behind Him the Mayor.

BUCKNER TO HAVE SQUAD AUTO BURGLARS GET HAUL

First Task Is Organization of Steal $5,000 in Silverware from Morristown Banker's Home. Sleuthing Force.

ory R. Buckner, chief inquisitor for to find the truth and to lay it bare and his family were all at home, and tell everything he knew, both as to mur- majority of the police force is either cor- Mrs. Foote's sister, was writing in he which was expected yesterday until next der and graft, whenever he was called rupt or inefficient. It is important to room about 2 o'clock, when she heard Mr. Whitman got a wire from R. J. Mr. Whitman later verified this when because, true or false, the impression is it a servant, did not pay any attention to "The job ahead of us is to learn as sway the plunder, Mr. Foote has not dis-

The task undertaken by the aldermanic Acting on that request the grand furors zo without any idea of protecting either committee was an enormous one, Mr. plishment required the organization of a John Eastland, another eye-witness of machine for procuring evidence that could When the jury adjourned without hand- the murder, who was able to corroborate not be called into being except after ex- how well you will feel for the outing the previous stories of the leisurely man- tensive and energetic preparation. The Colorado isn't just a place for sick folks ner in which the murderers got away, but people themselves might contribute largewho was not close enough so that he by the information sought by the commit- joys good air and the most beautiful could identify any of them; Louis Smith, tee, he added, but there could be no reeven put out the report that the jury had the notary public who acknowledged the liance upon such assistance, because it Dora Gilbert affidavit; Abe Harris and had to be purely voluntary. The commit-At his home later in the evening when Hugh Shaw were among the other wit- ice would have to engage its own force The one great advantage enjoyed by the

"MAN HIGHER UP" AT WORK

Buckner said. The committee, he ex-

Steeplejack Paints Flagpole at Police Headquarters.

The flagpole at the Headquarters of the Police Department was painted yesments until Schepps has been heard, be- terday by a "steeplejack" whose sense of the ridiculous was developed to the extent that caused him to have painted witness who will not be named as an ac- on the side of his wagon a device which Even Rhinelander Waldo, who is Commissioner of the Police Department. smiled when told of the facts in the case. It was about the first time in sev eral weeks that any one around Headquarters had permitted himself to relax the jocular muscles,

The "steeplejack" climbed to the top of the tall pole and painted it as white as now about the cleanest looking thing in by Representative Akin, of New York, seried in "The Congressional Record" under the leave to print privilege were expunged to-day by vote of the House. They contained attacks on Secretary Wilson and Willis L. Moore, of the Weather Bureau.

AKIN'S SPEECHES EXPUNGED

"Is this a freemasonry joint, where one member cannot say anything against another member?" demanded Mr. Akin.
The House voted the speeches out, nevertheless. Mr. Akin is a Progressive Republican from the 25th District and halfs from Akin, N. Y.

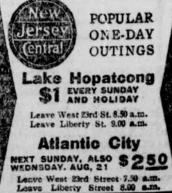

find out whether this is true or false, some one walking about, but thinking

The thieves used an automobile to carry

Decide on a Colorado Vacation You have often thought about going out to Colorado, but somehow always put if off. I'd like to have you go this year and either-it's a place for everybody who enscenery that all outdoors affords. I can ke you to places in Colorado that urope would give a million dollars to t, but the Old World can't have them-Your trip to Colorado will be nothing but pleasure from the very start if you select the right road to go on, the "Burlington Route." There are no more confertable trains in the world than those in the Burlington service to Colorado.

Drop me a postal and I'll send you our latest literature about Colorado, showing latest literature about Colorado, showing some wonderful pictures and introducing you to scores of places where you can spend an economical and restful vacation, prices for board, names and postoffice addresses of proprietors and full particulars. You can leave all details for this trip to me. Even to engaging your berth and delivering your tickets. Write me a postal now. I'll send you maps, pamphlets and pictures by return mall. W. J. O'Meara, Fastern Passenger Agent, C. B. & Q. R. R. 183 Broadway, New York City. Tel-Mad. Sq. 5798.

EWIS & CONGER Housefurnishing Warerooms Kitchen Furniture, Utensils

Proper for "Congressional Record." Washington, Aug. 15 .- Certain "speeches" getting evidence in the case, but did not report anything which appealed to him as and Moulds of every description. Fine China and Glass 45th St. & 6th Ave., N Y.